

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GIVING

Travel

While our online ministries continue to help us support congregations at a distance, we have also found that there is no substitute for in-person learning and conversation. For this reason, we have begun again to prioritize travel to congregations who have requested one of our team members to speak at workshops, evangelistic meetings, or Sunday school classes, or to share the sermon. These in-person opportunities have been a profound encouragement to everyone who participates, giving us the chance to answer questions in the moment and apply our content personally to each congregation.

It's important to us to make our training and resources for evangelism and discipleship as accessible as possible; that's why we don't charge the congregations that host us. However, it costs about $1500 to put on an event like a workshop. The churches who need the support we offer are often small congregations who don't have the funds to cover our travel, or churches at a farther distance (e.g. Pennsylvania or Oklahoma). A crucial way you can partner in AED's ministry to AFLC congregations is by donating to help cover our travel expenses so that we can keep coming alongside our AFLC churches in their eternal Kingdom work—not just digitally, but also face-to-face.
