

FLY Convention

Every two years, AFLC congregations from around the country send vans, busses, and airplanes with teens and caring adults to the FLY Convention. This event seeks to provide congregations with a tool to win the lost, build the believer, and encourage student discipleship in the local congregation. With rising costs of food, venue, lodging, supplies, and travel, we understand the financial burden this puts on those families and congregations who send their youth group to FLY. We invite individuals to consider giving to make the FLY Convention a financially attainable event for teens across the AFLC.

It should be no surprise to see God working in the lives of teens at the FLY Convention. As His word is proclaimed, His Spirit is there to convict of sin, instruct in godliness, and assure students of the forgiveness found in Christ. "At the FLY Convention," says one student, "I am reminded of the beauty and simplicity that waits for us through God's free gift of salvation through Jesus Christ and His sacrifice."
