

National Apologetics Trainer for FLY Beyond

Our desire is to provide funds to bring in a National Apologetics Trainer to equip the teens who attend FLY Beyond.

Every day in their schools, online, and in the world around them, Christian teens interact with worldviews and ideas that are contrary to their faith. Through FLY Beyond, we desire to provide a tool for congregations to equip their teens to stand firm in the faith amidst opposition and to winsomely and convincingly give reasons for their hope in Christ. For the past few FLY Beyond events, Tim Barnett has joined us from Stand to Reason to help us accomplish this goal. He provides content that connects well with teens and makes himself available for conversation with teens and adults during meals and free-time.

Depending on funding, we hope to bring the same quality of apologetics training to FLY Beyond 2026, and—if possible—increase the quantity of it. Here is a snapshot of the cost associated with bringing in Tim Barnett to train for 2 of the 4 days of our event. We'd love to have this quality training for all four days.
