Choir Robes

Choir Robes - Our Concert Choir, Proclaim Choir and Symphonic Wind Ensemble all wear robes in order to give their ensemble a uniform look during performances. These robes are used at the Christmas and Spring Concerts, Chapel Services and on tours. The majority of our current choir robes were purchased in 1988. Most have been a part of hundreds of concerts and have weathered over 100,000 miles of travel. Many of these robes are showing extreme staining, along with wear and tear.

This photo shows an older robe, purchased in 1988, stained with years of wear, compared to a newer robe, purchased in 2012. This picture was taken after both robes were dry cleaned. We would love to continue to replace older choir robes with newer ones. A discount is given when purchasing 6 or more at a time. We could immediately utilize and replace upwards of thirty new robes.
