Piano Lessons for Gospel Team Accompanists

Accompanists - Good accompanists are vital to a musical ensemble. They lay the foundation of tonality and rhythm for their group. At FLBC we rely on many student accompanists. These students put in countless hours practicing their parts in order to support and lead their ensembles. As we utilize these students from year to year, it is our desire to provide them with a skill set that will help their current ensemble and future congregational ministries.

Music lessons would help develop these skills. We would love to provide no cost piano lessons for our student accompanists.
