AFLC Commission on Evangelism

COE Mission statement: develop and sustain excitement for Evangelism through out the AFLC.

The AFLC Commission on Evangelism (COE) exists to Encourage the Local congregation and its Pastor to fulfill the Great Commission and to develop a plan to reach those who do not have a living relationship with Jesus in their local community.

Rekindling the Fire

Why has AFLC Commission on Evangelism sponsored Rekindling the Fire since 2003? Because we want to encourage, challenge, and bless our Pastors and their wives. They are very important to the life of the local congregation. Rekindling the Fire is held the Monday before the AFLC Annual Conference.

Rekindling the Fire

“As a pastor, I am so grateful for “Rekindling the Fire” events that the Commission on Evangelism sponsors! Ministry can be draining and in the midst of unending challenges and demands, the passionate flame for evangelism and discipleship can be snuffed out. For the sake of the church, pastors need to be spiritually charged up, challenged, and clearly focused. Thanks for caring about the should of the shepherd so that the sheep are also well fed!”

Rev. Steve Carlson

Ruthfred Lutheran, Bethel Park, PA

One of the Pastors after last years event said, and I am paraphrasing, he was encouraged to persevere in seeking to reach people for Christ.

The cost for Rekindle The Fire is $11,000 this covers honorariums for our speaker, music group, the meal, small gifts (usually a book),
