YOUTH WORKERS WEEKENDS

Training Today's Youth Leaders

Youth Workers Weekends (YWW) is a training initiative of AFLC Youth Ministries. For 20 years, an annual training weekend has been offered for all people who minister to and with teenagers.

As an extension of the mission to win teens to Jesus Christ, to build them up in God's Word and God's love, to equip them to share their faith with others, YWW builds off that retreat experience to refresh and to train leaders across the country.

"Youth Workers Weekends enables us to maximize our training in an annual national gathering. Over 90% of our youth leaders in the AFLC are volunteers in their local congregation.

YWW strategizes a way for us to engage both those that attend an annual retreat and those that need the training to come to them."

~ Pr. Jason Holt, Director of Youth Ministries

*Youth Workers Weekends is one event that I look forward to all year!
The training and the time together with people is incredibly valuable.*

~ Kathy Osthus, Veteran Youth Leader

Engaging Leaders

Youth Workers Weekends (YWW) is an established equipping effort of the AFLC Youth Ministries office. In addition to the training received in this one event, the YM department extends 6 video conferences per year that all volunteer and vocational youth leaders can attend. One additional option is providing all YWW attendees with a proven resource to stretch their influence with teens for Christ's Kingdom.
