YOUTH WORKERS WEEKENDS

Training Today's Youth Leaders

Youth Workers Weekends (YWW) is a training initiative of AFLC Youth Ministries. For almost 25 years, an annual training getaway has been offered for all people who work with teenagers.

As an extension of our mission to win, build, equip, and multiply teen believers, YWW trains local congregation adults from across the country to share Jesus effectively. The annual event engages volunteer and vocational leaders and is extended throughout the year via video connection points.

Encouraged & Equipped

"Youth Workers Weekends enables us to maximize our training through this focus at an annual event each January.

In addition, we are positioned to offer video connection points during the year well as travel with training for caring, believing adults at the local congregation or in an AFLC district.

We are eager to see those that serve teens be encouraged and equipped." - Rev. Dr. Jason Holt, Director of AFLC Youth Min
